

Sara Cirone

Sara Cirone is a small business owner by day and an avid theatre assistant by night. She has a profound fondness of anything tech related. She stumbled upon A.C.T. Studio Theatre a couple years ago while her two teenage daughters were working towards volunteer hours in the community and fell in love with the whole theatre process and the Instant family that came along with it. To Sara, the theatre is now her home away from home.